

COPY OF FORM 990

(TO BE USED, OR COPIED, FOR)

PUBLIC INSPECTION ONLY

NOTE

Under Internal Revenue Regulations, tax-exempt charitable organizations generally must provide requesters with COPIES of:

- Its approved exemption applications, all required attachments and any related correspondence with the IRS, and
- Its three most recent annual information returns (Form 990), including all schedules and attachments (but not the names and addresses of contributors).

In-person requests: A member of the public may request to inspect the documents at any principal office of the organization. The entity must provide the information requested that same day. However, if the request places an “unreasonable burden” on the organization, the staff must provide copies of the requested information no later than the next business day after the unusual circumstances cease to exist (limited to a maximum of five business days after the request).

Written requests: Written requests made by fax, mail, email, or overnight service, which include the requester’s address, must be honored within 30 days of receipt.

Website alternative: Instead of providing copies, an organization may make the documents available on either its own or another organization's website. If it uses this option, it has to: (1) provide an exact replica of the document as was filed with the IRS; (2) advise requesters how to access the forms on the web; (3) the site should charge no access fee and require no special software or hardware to download. Organizations that post this information on the Internet still must honor in-person requests to view the applicable documents.

Permissible charges: Tax-exempt organizations may charge a reasonable copying fee, up to $1 for the first page and 15 cents for each additional page, plus actual postage costs.

Penalties: An organization that fails to comply with the new disclosure requirements may be subject to the following penalties:

- Annual Information Return – Form 990 - $20 per day for as long as the failure continues, up to a maximum of $10,000 for each failure to provide an annual return.
- Exemption Application - $20 per day with no maximum.
- An organization that willfully fails to comply with these public inspection rules can be subject to an additional $5,000 penalty.

Private foundation exempt: The new disclosure rules don't yet apply to private foundations. They must still make a copy of their annual return available for public inspection at their principal office for a period of 180 days after publishing a notice of availability.

Donor Information: Please note that donor information is not open to public inspection and has been excluded from this copy.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a, Program Service Accomplishments:

'shalom' in the impacted communities.

The uniqueness of this process is that it is community led and managed.

In being the leaders of change, community members grow and develop their leadership skills, and become consultants to their community for catalyzing ongoing change and holistic transformation. This is the Modus Operandi of MAI's Training of Trainers (ToT) program, that believes and propagates community ownership and empowerment. It's this principle that was behind the launching, facilitation, and creation of a separate Non-Profit Organization called the Global CHE network. This collaborative network has since become a forum for sharing ideas that is not owned by any of the collaborating organizations. Members from

625 other NGOs and FBOs have now agreed to help each other implement

CHE in their areas. Medical Ambassadors, along with these other organizations, have reached and impacted over eight thousand communities in well over 126 countries, impacting well over six million people.

The exhaustive CHE curriculum has been augmented with updated lessons on disease diagnosis and treatment, water collection and purification, agriculture, animal husbandry, marketing, micro-enterprise, savings groups, ecology, literacy, marriage and family relationships, parenting skills, and local church leadership training. These lessons, over 8,000 of them, are available to all members of the CHE network who have partaken of the basic TOT training. As a result, at the local village or urban community level, well over 50,602 volunteer Community Health

Evangelists/Educators have been trained by MAI directly and through the LHA For Paperwork Reduction Act Notice, see the Instructions for Form 990 or 990-EZ.

many partners. Reports suggest that many times this number of people are active in Bible study and Bible story-telling discussion groups.

Practical application of what the Bible teaches is transforming the daily lives of thousands of families and transforming whole communities.

90% of the impact of Medical Ambassadors is generated through the efforts of unpaid volunteers around the world, trained and encouraged by Medical Ambassadors paid staff.

The contribution of Volunteers globally is enormous, and this has only been possible due to the unique model MAI has of being able to mobilize, motivate and train volunteers, who in turn train generations of other volunteers, making Holistic disciples who make Holistic disciples.

Many organizations pay staff to deliver similar services of community development. MAI teaches people to make improvements in their own communities, as volunteers. In essence, we encourage them to become self-propagating multipliers. This allows their programs to be sustainable. MAI continues to look for ways to harness this impact and assess its impact; If we could find a way, we would be able to get a better picture of the 'real value of' these volunteer services in its calculation of overhead vs program expenses. In both 2017 and 2018, MAI was identified by ROIM (<https://roiministry.org/>) as being among the top 10 organizations in the world that have a high return on investment for the Kingdom of God.

all board members before filing with the IRS.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

Board members and officers are required to disclose potential conflicts of interest by completing and signing an annual questionnaire which is reviewed by independent members of management. Should any potential conflicts of interest be disclosed, the board member or officer would be asked to refrain from participation in any deliberation or decision with regard to matters affected by the relationship.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:

On an annual basis, the VP of Administration reviews nonprofit data (two sources: Compensation in Nonprofit Orgs in CA and Christian Leadership Assoc Compensation Handbook for Christian Ministries) for comparable salaries and prepares a salary range to be provided to the board (in case of President position), or President and other officers in the case of management staff salaries. If range in data is varied, then a call to a similar nonprofit ministry is made. The salaries are approved by independent board (President), or President and other officers (management staff) and are documented in MAI's budget data and minutes.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19:

The Donor Bill of Rights can be accessed on our website which includes our policy to provide information upon donor request. Requests for governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements can be made personally, by phone, or email, and the organization will promptly send this information.

Overhead percentages, although acceptable, reflect only Medical than our expenditures suggest.
