

COPY OF FORM 990

(TO BE USED, OR COPIED, FOR)

PUBLIC INSPECTION ONLY

NOTE

Under Internal Revenue Regulations, tax-exempt charitable organizations generally must provide requesters with COPIES of:

- Its approved exemption applications, all required attachments and any related correspondence with the IRS, and
- Its three most recent annual information returns (Form 990), including all schedules and attachments (but not the names and addresses of contributors).

In-person requests: A member of the public may request to inspect the documents at any principal office of the organization. The entity must provide the information requested that same day. However, if the request places an “unreasonable burden” on the organization, the staff must provide copies of the requested information no later than the next business day after the unusual circumstances cease to exist (limited to a maximum of five business days after the request).

Written requests: Written requests made by fax, mail, email, or overnight service, which include the requester’s address, must be honored within 30 days of receipt.

Website alternative: Instead of providing copies, an organization may make the documents available on either its own or another organization's website. If it uses this option, it has to: (1) provide an exact replica of the document as was filed with the IRS; (2) advise requesters how to access the forms on the web; (3) the site should charge no access fee and require no special software or hardware to download. Organizations that post this information on the Internet still must honor in-person requests to view the applicable documents.

Permissible charges: Tax-exempt organizations may charge a reasonable copying fee, up to $1 for the first page and 15 cents for each additional page, plus actual postage costs.

Penalties: An organization that fails to comply with the new disclosure requirements may be subject to the following penalties:

- Annual Information Return – Form 990 - $20 per day for as long as the failure continues, up to a maximum of $10,000 for each failure to provide an annual return.
- Exemption Application - $20 per day with no maximum.
- An organization that willfully fails to comply with these public inspection rules can be subject to an additional $5,000 penalty.

Private foundation exempt: The new disclosure rules don't yet apply to private foundations. They must still make a copy of their annual return available for public inspection at their principal office for a period of 180 days after publishing a notice of availability.

Donor Information: Please note that donor information is not open to public inspection and has been excluded from this copy.

stronger by building the second line of leadership and improving capacity for better communications in the field through upgraded technology. The technical division is doing well, and our four new specialized programs and ongoing programs are doing well. These are:

New special programs: Community Relief response, Trafficking prevention, the Medical Ambassadors International Academy, and Virtual Vision trips.

Ongoing special programs: Tele-Medicine, Coffee Business as Mission, and Focus on Children with disability.

In 2021 we also explored the possibility of solar powered agriculture in Togo and special malaria control efforts in West Africa. We continue to explore corporate sector partnerships to work with MAI as a means of drawing marketplace skills into play with our ministry for further quality and efficiency expansion.

The Covid crisis continued to delay and disrupt field work and forced us to change and modify the way we do business. Training programs, for the most part, have become virtual or hybrid efforts. This has often been a blessing in disguise as we have been able to have people from across the world facilitate training as well as have participants from across the globe.

We continue to 'make wholistic disciples, who make wholistic disciples' and thus facilitating what we pray for in the Lord's prayer (Matthew 6:10) 'bring heaven to earth, one community at a time'.

A Brief Overview of 2021

Our engagement with the Barnabas Group (TBG) has continued as we have worked closely with their advisory teams to improve our resource mobilizing strategy. This has done well as can be seen from our financial report later in this document. TBG has continued to help us sharpen our message and improve our marketing strategy.

MAI's team of field CHE trainers continue to be effective, expanding their facilitation skills with community vision casting. They train CHE committees, CHE volunteers, and where the context determines, specialized CHE programs focusing on women's issues, families, men, children, micro-enterprise and the disabled. Our quest for new approaches continues to foster new relationships and partnerships with other agencies to train our lead trainers. After an initial set back during the early stages of the Covid crisis, modified training approaches were adapted, and we were able to facilitate more training programs than we had done in the past.

In the year ahead, we have the following areas that we will focus on:

We will continue to strengthen the new communities that we have recently added to our program and work towards strengthening their capacity through training and regular follow up.

Name of the organization Medical Ambassadors International	Employer identification number 94-2691184

The year ahead will also be one of consolidating some of the partnerships we have established, with special emphasis on working together as examples of effective Christian partnerships and collaboration. We seek the Lord's face and ask that He continues to open our eyes to see what He is doing so we can partner with Him in the expansion of His kingdom!

The new collaboration initiated by MAI in 2008 now operates under separate non-profit registration to form a network of the many other organizations (Global CHE Network). This network has become a forum for sharing ideas but is not owned by any of the collaborating organizations and continues to grow by leaps and bounds. Members represent 962 NGOs and FBOs, and 31,716 workers in 4,048 communities across 136 countries who have now agreed to help each other implement CHE in their areas. MAI along with these other organizations, have all been able to reach far beyond our own organizational limitations because of this healthy partnership.

The extensive CHE curriculum has also been augmented with updated lessons on disease diagnosis and treatment including new diseases like Covid and monkey pox. Lessons on water collection and purification, agriculture, animal husbandry, marketing, micro-enterprise, savings groups, simple reproductive technology, ecology, literacy, marriage and family relationships, parenting skills, and local church leadership training continue to grow and be used extensively. These lessons are available to all members of the CHE network who have partaken of the basic TOT training. As a result, at the local village or urban community level, well over 52,442 volunteer Community Health

Evangelists/Educators have been trained by MAI directly and through the many partners that MAI has. Reports suggest that many times this number of people are active in Bible study and Bible storytelling/discussion groups. Practical application of what the Bible teaches is transforming the daily lives of thousands of families and transforming whole communities around the world.

90% of the impact of MAI is generated through the efforts of unpaid volunteers around the world, trained and encouraged by MAI paid staff.

The contribution of volunteers globally is enormous, and this has only been possible due to the unique model MAI has of being able to mobilize, motivate, and train volunteers, who in turn train generations of other volunteers, making Holistic disciples who make Holistic disciples.

Many organizations pay staff to deliver similar services of community development. However, MAI teaches people to make improvements in their own communities, as volunteers. In essence, we 'teach them to fish, rather than give them a fish'. And then, we go beyond that, by training them how to maintain their ponds. This helps them to have sustainable livelihoods for scores of families, and for future generations. The CHE approach allows their programs to be sustainable after we leave and can be more easily copied by others. This is another reason that the program has replicated extensively. In turn, if MAI could include the value of these volunteer services in its calculation of overhead versus program expenses, its overhead percentage would decrease radically.

and approved by the organization's top management. A copy was provided to all board members before filing with the IRS.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

Board members and officers are required to disclose potential conflicts of interest by completing and signing an annual questionnaire which is reviewed by independent members of management. Should any potential conflicts of interest be disclosed, the board member or officer would be asked to refrain from participation in any deliberation or decision with regard to matters affected by the relationship.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:

On an annual basis, the VP of Administration reviews nonprofit data (two sources: Compensation in Nonprofit Orgs in CA and Christian Leadership Assoc Compensation Handbook for Christian Ministries) for comparable salaries. The VP prepares a salary range to be provided to the Board in the case of the President's position or to the President and other officers in the case of management staff salaries. If the range in the data is varied, then a call to a similar nonprofit ministry is made. The independent board approves salaries for the President, and the President approves salaries for other officers. The approval process is documented in MAI's budget data and board minutes.
